

USE OF CAS-NET MARK POLICY

Purpose

The purpose of this Policy establishes the rules and requirements for use of all CAS-NET

Trademarks and Marks.

CAS-NET OWNERSHIP OF ALL MARKS

Authorized Use of CAS-NET'S Mark

- CAS-NET grants permission to use the CAS-NET Marks whether for certification or verification/validation activities for CAS-NET conformed clients who have satisfied all applicable CAS-NET credentialing and conformity assessment requirements. Each CAS-NET conformed client is authorized to use only the appropriate Mark associated with the scope or programme , which represents the appropriate conformity assessment and credentials.
- Each CAS-NET conformed client may use the appropriate CAS-NET Mark in professional and business ways, whether it is used in packaging, products, services, reports, processes, digital platforms, printed materials, machineries and so on.

Non-Assignability and Non-Transferability

Permission to use the Mark is limited to the conformed client according to the period stated in the scope, and shall not be transferred to, assigned to, or otherwise used by any other individual, organization, or entity.

CAS-NET Mark Use Policy Violation

Following receipt of information that an inappropriate or unauthorized use of the Mark may have occurred; CAS-NET will determine if responsive action(s) will be taken, including the following:

- The alleged inappropriate or unauthorized Mark use will be reviewed.
- If a Policy violation may have occurred, CAS-NET shall communicate to the individual(s) and/or organization(s) involved, requesting that they cease the unauthorized use. If the Policy violation is not corrected, appropriate legal actions or sanctions shall be taken, including certification suspension or revocation.
